KS1	Objective (although the National Curriculum only sets out a KS2 Programme of Study for languages, the following objectives might be useful in KS1)	Pupils working towards	Pupils working at	Pupils working beyond
	Listening and responding I can understand simple classroom commands. I can understand short statements. I can understand simple questions and respond to them. I can understand someone speaking clearly. I can listen to a simple picture book. Pupils may need a lot of help through the use of gestures and repetition.
	Speaking I can say simple phrases. I can join in a simple song. I can say my name. I can answer a simple question with a single word. I can count up to 10. I can name and describe everyday objects e.g. say what colour they are. Pronunciation may be approximate and may need considerable support from a spoken model and from visual clues.
	Reading and responding I can read and understand single words. I can read and understand simple sentences about people's names. I can read and recognise the numbers up to 10. I can look at simple story books and talk about them. Writing will need to be presented in clear script in a familiar context. Pupils will probably need visual clues.
	Writing I can copy single words correctly. I can write single words from memory. I can write my name using a verb e.g. Je m'appelle Jacques. I can label items. I can write the numbers from 0 to 10. I can copy common adjectives. Spelling may be approximate at this stage.
